

Abolish his Code of Conduct

They say it takes a village to raise a child.
Similarly, Al Siraat College cannot provide the

6. Raising one's voice, or using offensive language, while communicating.
7. Age-inappropriate language when communicating with children.

Use of technology and social media

The expectations set out in this Code of Conduct can also apply to the way a Parent uses technology and behaves online.

For example, Parents should:

Respect a staff member's professional and personal boundaries, by not using their personal online presence to raise $ P M M F H F matters (or otherwise engage in disrespectful behaviour).

Not take photos, videos or other recordings of another student without their Parent's consent, and not publish information (including personal details, contact information, images and recordings) concerning a staff member, Parent, student or other member of the $ P M M F H F community online without express consent.

Avoid publishing information which may bring the $ P M M F H F (or any of its staff, students, Parents and other members of the $ P M M F H F community) into disrepute. This includes where an image or recording shows a student in School uniform behaving inappropriately.

Not communicate with other students outside of the $ P M M F H F including by email or on social media, without prior consent from that s

Drop off / pick up

When dropping off and picking up students from the $ P M M F H F, Parents are expected to ensure the health and safety of all members of our $ P M M F H F community, as well as the wider community, at all times.

Parents must comply with all traffic rules and any $ P M M F H F traffic management system in place. This includes adhering to applicable speed limits, observing all traffic signs, limiting the use of car horns (unless indicating imminent danger), and parking appropriately and safely.

Responsibility for others

Parents are expected to ensure that other individuals involved in their child's life, such as other relatives and carers, also comply with this Code of Conduct.

Raising concerns appropriately and productively

The $ P M M F H F is committed to the education and wellbeing of each student. It is therefore critical that Parents are able to raise genuine concerns and grievances they may have about such matters in an appropriate, constructive and respectful forum.

The $ P M M F H F's grievance-management procedures are set out in the Customer Care procedural document. This procedure sets out how concerns and grievances may be raised with the $ P M M F H F; who they should be raised with; and how the $ P M M F H F will deal with these in a respectful and timely manner.

Consequences for breaching this Code of Conduct

The Principal will have absolute discretion for

Parent Code of Conduct